SMT. NISHITA MHATRE,JJ.

DTAED: 12TH APRIL,2006.

P.C.

1. By this application, the Union of India seeks review of the order passed by us on 16-2-2006. That order was passed on duly agreed minutes of the order.

2. By Review Petition, it is contended that serious injuries
of vast magnitude are likely to be caused if the order is not reviewed. The order dt.

16-2-2006 was passed as agreed but it is not implemented so far. The grounds given for seeking review are not such ground as can result in reviewing of the petition. Subsequent events are being placed before us for seeking review of the order.

3. In our opinion, the proper remedy for the Union of India is to challenge this order before the Supreme Court of India. Looking to the gravity of the matter and apprehended injury, which is to be avoided, we direct that the order dated 16-2-2006 may not be implemented for two more weeks. Review petition is therefore dismissed.

4. The decision of the review petition is pertaining to the review petition itself, other proceedings are not covered by this order.
